GW Center for Career Services Blog
https://blogs.gwu.edu/careerservices

Thank you for your interest in writing a blog post for the GW Center for Career Services!

1. Your post should be about your career success experience: remember that success can be defined in many ways, and sometimes a “failure” can be a success.

2. Write 300 - 1000 words. Feel free to use your “voice.”

3. Give your blog post a title!

1. Select a high quality, large file image to go with your blog post. This image must be your property. Sample images include:
   • a headshot
   • you at your job
   • the place you work
   • something related to your success and/or experience. Be creative!

2. Email your blog post to gwcareerblog@gmail.com. Attach your post and title in a Word document and attach the image. Include your name, major, and graduation date in the body of the email.

Approval and Publication Process

• Once you submit your blog post, it will be proofread and edited by the Center for Career Services team. Don’t worry; we won’t change your content!

• Once approved, your post will be queued up for publication on the blog. We will send you an email notification when we publish your post! Note: the date of when your post is published will depend on how many posts are queued up before you.

Thank you!
