GW Center for Career Services Blog
https://blogs.gwu.edu/careerservices/

Thank you for your interest in writing a blog post for the GW Center for Career Services!

1. Your post should be about you and your experience.

2. Write 300 – 1000 words. Pay attention to grammar, spelling, and getting your thoughts across clearly. Feel free to use your “voice”: this is a blog post, not an essay!

3. Give your blog post a title!

4. Select a high quality, large file image to go with your blog post. This image must be your property. Sample images include:
   - a headshot
   - you at your internship or job
   - the place you work/intern
   - something related to your success. Be creative!

5. Email your blog post to gwcareerblog@gmail.com. Attach your post and title in a Word document and attach the image. Include your name, major, and expected graduation date in the body of the email.

Approval and Publication Process

- Once you submit your blog post, it will be proofread and edited by the Center for Career Services team. Don’t worry; we won’t change your content!

- Once approved, your post will be queued up for publication on the blog. We will send you an email notification when we publish your post! Note: the date of when your post is published will depend on how many posts are queued up before you.

Thank you!
